

APPLICATION FOR APPROVAL OF AUTHORSHIP CREDIT

Attorney: _____ Supreme Court Number _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

Publisher: _____

Title of Article/Book: _____

Volume/Issue of Publication: _____

Subject Matter: _____

Type of Publication: _____

Publication Date (Must be completed): Month/Year _____

Is book or article personally authored by applicant? _____ Yes _____ No

Number of clock hours spent preparing the publication: _____

Copy this form as needed.

Please note:

- Applications for CLE credit for published articles will be reviewed UPON publication. CLE credit granted will be allocated to the compliance period in which publication occurs.
- Incomplete applications will be returned without review.
- Fax and email transmissions of this form will not be accepted.
- Articles, monographs, and books directed to non-attorney audience readers, while resulting in self-improvement as a form of self-study, do not qualify for authorship credit.
- Preparation of written materials for an accredited CLE program but not teaching the program will not qualify for either teaching or authorship credit.

Submit a copy of the publication with this application. Publication becomes property of the CLE Commission. If you wish this publication returned, please enclose the appropriate postage.

Based on this information, the Commission will issue an affidavit that you must sign and return to register credit.

Signature

Date